2025 DANUBE WATER CONFERENCE

Looking back, looking forward: A State of the Sector Update

Logistical Guidelines

Date

The 2025 Danube Water Conference will open on 14 May 2025 at 1:00 pm and conclude around 1pm on the 16 May.

Other events occurring include: (i) The “Utility Benchmarking Program Danube Hub Workshop” and “Utility Benchmarking Program Danube Hub – Management Practices” on 13 and 14 May, (ii) the IAWD General Assembly meeting on 14 May and, (iii) a donors/IFI meeting on May 14. These events are by invitation only, and do not require a registration fee. Further information will be provided to individual invitees.

Venue

The conference venue is the conference center Twelve in the city of Vienna in Austria.

Address:

Entrance via Südfoyer

Hertha-Firnberg-Straße 8 / Corner

Maria-Kuhn-Gasse

A-1100 Vienna

The location is close to Vienna’s train station Meidling and can be reached easily by public transport, shared van or taxi. For the train ride from Vienna Airport to the city center an extra ticket is necessary. Ideally, single ride tickets are directly purchased at the station at the Airport. There are two different trains at the airport: CAT (fast and direct travel to Vienna, €14,90 for one way) and “Schnellbahn” (regular trains, tickets around €2,50€ to the border of Vienna, plus a ticket for the city itself).

Round-trip bus ticket (from/to airport) costs € 20, and one-way van or taxi will cost approximately €50.

General information on public transport within Vienna: There are ticket machines at every metro station in Vienna, you can pay with card or cash and buy single ride tickets (€2,40 each) or get a 24 hrs (€8,00) or 48 hrs (€14,10) ticket. All tickets can also be bought online beforehand: EASY CityPass Vienna - Wiener Linien.
